*D8056 — Fortification. — Coblentz. Fortifications.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1861. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's message to Congress at the beginning of his first term. The letter is written in a formal, dignified style, and it is one of the most important documents in American history.

[The rest of the document is a copy of the letter from the President to Congress, dated January 3, 1861.]

A demonstration of true love unto you the rulers of the Colony of the Massachusetts in Nevv-England; shewing to you that are now in authority the unjust paths that your predecessors walked in, and of the Lord's dealings with them in his severe judgments, for persecuting his saints and children. Which may be a warning unto you, that you walk not in the same steps, lest you come under the same condemnation. Written by one who was once in authority with them; but always testified against their persecuting spirit... [London.] Printed in the Year 1674. 20 pp. Sm. 4°.

Relates to the persecution of Quakers by the Puritans of Massachusetts. Pp. 9, 10 are supplied in facsimile from a copy in the Library of the Society of Friends.
